

Huntsville

The Huntsville leather sofa range includes a hint of classic design with its beautiful shape and traditional rolled panel style arm, only accentuated by gorgeous aniline leathers. Distinguishing and sought-after features such as natural blemishes, differences in coloration and variations in the grain of the leather mean that no two Huntsville sofas are identical. Every Huntsville is brimming with character and bound to leave a lasting impression. The Huntsville range includes a chair, stool and two sofas. Its stool contains additional storage space, excellent for concealing unnecessary clutter, and offers legroom for blissful relaxation.
