

Harrison Gloucester 11600

The Harrison Gloucester 11600 seasonal turn mattress has a 5000 Microlution Airflow and Revolution spring system, offering optimal comfort. 100% natural fillings of cotton, flax and wool make the mattress breathable and better able to wick away moisture, so you can have cool, hygienic nights of uninterrupted slumber. The range is available in soft, medium and firm tensions, as well as soft medium and medium firm on king and super king sizes. This means you can select the perfect Harrison Gloucester mattress for your individual sleep position, resulting in fewer aches and pains.
