

Stressless Wave

Representing true innovation in comfort technology, the Stressless Wave comes in a high back or a low back style so you can achieve the ideal look for your lounge. The seats recline individually, so everyone can find their perfect seating position. The Glide system allows you to adjust your position by using your body weight, while the Plus system follows the movements of your body to provide excellent support. A wide array of fabric, leathers and foot options allows the range to blend easily with your existing furniture.
