

Duresta Salcombe

The Duresta Salcombe fuses glamour with classic British style. Its deep seats, thick arm pads and back cushions are filled with fibre as standard for excellent comfort and a soft sit. Duck feather-filled scatters and lumbar bring additional luxury. The legs come in a Driftwood finish as standard but are also available in an Umber or Ebony finish. All come with steel finishers. The legs are also removable, making delivery easier. The range is available in a selection of sofa sizes and in modular units, allowing you to find the best combination for your lounge. A reading chair, wing chair and two footstools complete the collection.
