Fredrick

Designed in Britain, the Fredrick sofa collection puts a modern spin on classic style. The sofas are handcrafted from the finest materials, including solid hardwood sourced from sustainable forests. A super-soft mix of feather, foam and fibre fillings promises lasting comfort. The range's solid, hand-turned, polished legs are available in Weathered Oak, Dark Wood and Black Wood finishes so you can match the sofa to your furnishings. Simple and refined, the Fredrick is available in a variety of fabrics and warm natural leathers - a stylish but cosy sofa collection.
