

Adam Wood by Philippe Starck

Kartell's Adam Wood isn't just a bookcase; it's a sculptural statement piece that reimagines storage with playful curves and endless modularity. Crafted from sustainably sourced wood, its sinuous shelves dance in three dimensions, embraced by a sleek, minimalist steel frame. This innovative design, born from the mind of Philippe Starck, isn't just breathtakingly beautiful – it's surprisingly practical. Adam Wood's modular magic lets you build your ideal storage landscape. Stack units high for a dramatic library wall, keep it low and lean for a minimalist touch, or play with shelf heights to create a dynamic composition. Ready to sculpt your storage, style your space?
